A Word from Our President

My Dear Sisters in Christ,

I pray for healing in your families.

Our nation is greatly divided and reeling from all the terrible injustices we have witnessed these past days, the violence, unrest, fear, and most of all the PAIN.

As our Holy Father, Pope Francis, recently said to us, "his brothers and sisters in the United States... we cannot tolerate or turn a blind eye to racism and exclusion in any form and yet claim to defend the sacredness of every human life" (General Audience Address, June 3, 2020).

We must strive to bring attention in our church communities the injustice that is being inflicted on our communities.

Let us continue to pray to the Immaculate of Mary our Mother for peace and dignity in our land.

God has made us all in His likeness to bring Glory to Him. May we always aspire to bring unity, peace, and love wherever we may go.

May our Lord Jesus Christ, bless each one of you.

Forever I remain His Servant

Eva Volter
SIS, President

Barriere, Ruben Morales, Dr. Jerome Gallien, Patricia Smith, Annie Robertson, Carla Davis, Vanessa Johnson, James Freeman, Regina Salandy, Denean Burroughs, and Kimberly Sonnier.

God, as more people get sick, healthcare workers, first responders, and other essential employees are working longer hours with fewer supplies and with more risk of contracting COVID-19 themselves as they work to take care of us and respond to our needs. Renew their energy and sustain them on long shifts. Wrap Your hedge of protection around them as they commit to the work that they do. Multiply their supplies so they have the protective items needed to stay safe on the job. Protect their families when they return home from work.

Bless all of us as we strive to cope with the coronavirus pandemic each and every day. May we all become closer to you and be a beacon of light to all whose lives we touch through our words and actions. In the Name of Jesus, we pray. AMEN

Please join us in praying for the following:

1. SIS Esther Navy, experienced a fall and remains in rehabilitation
2. SIS Helen Auzenne, underwent a medical procedure and is recuperating
3. SIS Louise LaBove, had a major accident and is recuperating

11. Mrs. Elenora Granger, relative of SIS Carol Tyson, tested positive for COVID-19. Pray for full recovery and restoration of health.

Eternal rest grant unto Victoria Brown Hooper, sister of SIS Virgie Ricardo; Mary Dell Berard, first cousin of SIS Mary Charles; Virginia Delco, first cousin of SIS Mary Trahan; Charlene Thierry, aunt of SIS Jamie Williams; and Gaston Joseph, brother of Deacon Ignatius and SIS Mary Jane Joseph; and Joseph Horris LeMelle, uncle of Matt Matthews, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

The Most Holy Trinity, The Creator and Lord of all so loved his people that for their salvation he sent his Son, the Prince and Savior of the faithful, who washed and dried our wounds. And he exuded the sweetest balm, from which flow all good things for salvation.... For the Father is the Father, the Son is the Son, and the Holy Spirit is the Holy Spirit, and these three Persons are indivisible in the Unity of the Divinity....

As the flame of a fire has three qualities, so there is one God in three Persons. How?

A flame is made up of brilliant light and red power and fiery heat. It has brilliant light that it may shine, and red power that it may endure, and fiery heat that it may burn. Therefore, by the brilliant light understand the Father, who with paternal love opens his brightness to his faithful; and by the red power, which is in the flame that it may be strong, understand the Son, who took on a body born from a Virgin, in which his divine wonders were shown; and by the fiery heat understand the Holy Spirit, who burns ardently in the minds of the faithful....

Therefore as these three qualities are found in one flame, so three Persons must be understood in the Unity of the Divinity. And as three causes for the production of words are seen, so the Trinity in the Unity of the Divinity is to be inferred. How?

In a word there is sound, meaning, and breath. It has sound that it may be heard, meaning that it may be understood, and breath that it may be pronounced. In the sound, then, observe the Father, who manifests all things with ineffable power; in the meaning, the Son, who was miraculously begotten of the Father; and in the breath, the Holy Spirit, who sweetly burns in them....

Therefore, in these three Persons recognize your God, who created you in the power of his divinity and redeemed you.

Second Prayer

“We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God”.

In the present tragic situation, when the whole world is prey to suffering and anxiety, we fly to you, Mother of God and our Mother, and seek refuge under your protection.

Virgin Mary, turn your merciful eyes towards us amid this coronavirus pandemic. Comfort those who are distraught and mourn their loved ones who have died, and at times are buried in a way that grieves them deeply. Be close to those who are concerned for their loved ones who are sick and who, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, cannot be close to them. Fill with hope those who are troubled by the uncertainty of the future and the consequences for the economy and employment.

Mother of God and our Mother, pray for us to God, the Father of mercies, that this great suffering may end and that hope and peace may dawn anew. Plead with your divine Son, as you did at Cana, so that the families of the sick and the victims be comforted, and their hearts be opened to confidence and trust.

Protect those doctors, nurses, health workers and volunteers who are on the frontline of this emergency and are risking their lives to save others. Support their heroic effort and grant them strength, generosity, and continued health.

Be close to those who assist the sick night and day, and to priests who, in their pastoral concern and fidelity to the Gospel, are trying to help and support everyone.

Blessed Virgin, illumine the minds of men and women engaged in scientific research, that they may find effective solutions to overcome this virus.

Support national leaders, that with wisdom, solicitude, and generosity they may come to the aid of those lacking the basic necessities of life and may devise social and economic solutions inspired by farsightedness and solidarity.

Mary Most Holy, stir our consciences, so that the enormous funds invested in developing and stockpiling arms will instead be spent on promoting effective research on how to prevent similar tragedies from occurring in the future.

Beloved Mother, help us realize that we are all members of one great family and to recognize the bond that unites us, so that, in a spirit of fraternity and solidarity, we can help to alleviate countless situations of poverty and need. Make us strong in faith, persevering in service, constant in prayer. Mary, Consolation of the afflicted, embrace all your children in distress and pray that God will stretch out his all-powerful hand and free us from this terrible pandemic, so that life can serenely resume its normal course.

To you, who shine on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope, do we entrust ourselves, O Clement, O Loving, O Sweet Virgin Mary. Amen.

2 Corinthians 1:3-5 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, a gentle Father and the God of all consolation, who comforts us in all our sorrows, so that we can offer others, in their sorrows, the consolation that we have received from God ourselves. Indeed, as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, so, through Christ, does our consolation overflow.

We turn to God Our Father and lift up our hearts in gratefulness that He chose us to be in His service today. Lord God, Author of all that is good, fill us with Grace to serve you this day. May the Holy Spirit fill our hearts with His fruits of Charity, Joy, Peace, Patience and Kindness toward each other, especially those most in need of consolation. Let us pray for and be willing to aid the sick, weak, depressed, oppressed, the lost, homeless, outcast and forgotten.

We pray for those in need of encouragement, strength and will today to begin the tasks necessary for their own survival and livelihood; especially those weakened from illness, paralyzed, bedridden or bound to a wheelchair and the mentally challenged. Lord let them feel your loving hand as you lift them up and bless them with your love and peace. Lord give the strong hearts of kindness, compassion and generosity and the will to help others who are less fortunate. Lead us by your spirit to do your will and guide and protect us by your Wisdom.

Lord please comfort and keep in your care families of those who are losing or have lost their battle in the fight against COVID 19 and other serious illnesses; especially those who cannot make physical contact with their relatives.

If it is your will Father, let us join the nurses, doctors, caregivers and helping hands of comfort of ministers of peace and Your Holy Word to bring encouragement and assurance of Your presence with the despondent sick and dying, and become instruments of your peace, love, faith, hope to those in despair, joy to the hearts of the saddened and the the light of Christ to souls in darkness.

Prompt our actions with your Grace Lord and complete them with your all-powerful help. In the Name of the Father and of The Son and of The Holy Spirit. Amen.

Statement regarding the Death of George Floyd

by the Most Reverend Roy E. Campbell, Jr.
President of the National Black Catholic Congress

Issued June 3, 2020

My fellow citizens of these United States of America, we have witnessed in graphic video detail, racism on display in the twenty-first century in the killing of George Floyd, an arrested, unarmed, hand-cuffed and subdued black man by a white police officer, who refused to acknowledge a fellow human being's cries of distress.

The National Black Catholic Congress (the Congress) joins the nonviolent calls and protests for a complete and transparent investigation of the killing of Mr. Floyd in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Along with a call for investigation and justice, the Congress echoes Archbishop Bernard Hebda, of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis, in which he states in part, "...Let us pray for comfort for his grieving family and friends, peace for a hurting community and prudence while the process moves forward. We need a full investigation that results in rightful accountability and veritable justice..."

Justice is what Mr. Floyd and his family and friends deserve. Justice through equal and fair treatment under the law is what every person in this country deserves. Justice brings about Peace, and Peace allows Love to Flourish. This is what the founding fathers of this country tried to promote in the Constitution and what this nation fought a Civil War to uphold, that ended one hundred and fifty-five years ago. However, the racism brought on by the enslavement of Black Americans in the years leading up to the establishment of the United States of America to the Civil War, still exists and all too frequently displays its ugly effects today in racist attitudes and actions that discriminate one people from another.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. once wrote: "Discrimination is a hellhound that gnaws at Negroes in every waking moment of their lives to remind them that the lie of their inferiority is accepted as truth in the society dominating them." He also wrote: "Law and order exist for the purpose of establishing justice and when they fail in this purpose, they become the dangerously structured dams that block the flow of social progress."

Today, as we seek justice for George Floyd and his family, each of us must commit ourselves to the untiring pursuit of Justice, Peace and Love for every person in this country; because, together every person in this country makes us the United States of America.

Archbishop Wilton Gregory Issues Statement on Planned Presidential Visit

June 2, 2020

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Here is a statement from Washington Archbishop Wilton D. Gregory regarding the planned visit today from the president at the Saint John Paul II National Shrine:

I find it baffling and reprehensible that any Catholic facility would allow itself to be so egregiously misused and manipulated in a fashion that violates our religious principles, which call us to defend the rights of all people even those with whom we might disagree. Saint Pope John Paul II was an ardent defender of the rights and dignity of human beings. His legacy bears vivid witness to that truth. He certainly would not condone the use of tear gas and other deterrents to silence, scatter or intimidate them for a photo opportunity in front of a place of worship and peace.

On Sunday, May 31, Washington Archbishop Wilton Gregory released this statement on the Memorial Day death of George Floyd:

In astonishment, we are seeing the reactions of people across the United States as they express feelings of frustration, hurt, and anger in their cry for justice for George Floyd, whom we painfully watched being suffocated in front of our eyes on video in Minneapolis, Minnesota this past week.

Many of us remember similar incidents in our history that accompanied the Civil Rights Movement, where we repeatedly saw Black Americans viciously brutalized by police on television and in newspaper photos. Those historic moments helped to rouse our national conscience to the African American experience in the United States and now, in 2020, we tragically still see repeated incidents of police brutality against African Americans. We find ourselves in this national moment again with the awakening of our conscience by heartbreaking photos and video that clearly confirm that racism still endures in our country. On television and in social media, we are observing an overflow of pain felt acutely in the African American community and shared by too many other communities.

Moments like this cause people of good will, who believe in the value, respect and dignity of every human life, to wonder if and how we can move on from here. The horror of George Floyd's death, like all acts of racism, hurts all of us in the Body of Christ since we are each made in the image and likeness of God, and deserve the dignity that comes with that existence.

This incident reveals the virus of racism among us once again even as we continue to cope with the coronavirus pandemic. Statement on the fatal shooting of Ahmaud Arbery in Georgia

Continued...

We owe immense appreciation to our first responders who are currently working tirelessly to care for us and keep us safe. We remain grateful to them for their commitment to serve our community by protecting and saving lives.

However, as a society, must find ways to understand and to respond to the pain of our brothers and sisters. We see racism destroying the lives of Jewish, Muslim, and Christian people because of their religious and ethnic heritages. Racism triggers the divisive and xenophobic attitudes of nationalism. It also targets people because of their cultural traditions or physical appearances and it threatens immigrant people who seek nothing more than the opportunity to improve their lives and the lives of their children.

We must non-violently and constructively work together to heal and build the “Beloved Community” that was spoken about by the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

On this Pentecost weekend, I join my brother bishops throughout our nation, and especially Archbishop Hebda of St. Paul and Minneapolis, in calling on the Holy Spirit in the most urgent way. We must examine our own attitudes and actions in order to seek conversion from sin and turn our hearts towards Christ in order to end personal and structural racism. Now, and every day, we must pray to find the strength to do what is right and just as we encounter our neighbors from a culture, country, religion, race, or experience different than our own and see in them God’s creative design.

This moment calls us to be the Church of hope that Jesus Christ created us to be in a world full of pain and despair.

We pray for a new Pentecost: a renewal of love, justice and truth in our hearts. We are called to do justice and love goodness in order to walk humbly with God.

Since we are confident that the Father always hears our prayer for reconciliation, together, we join in peaceful, non-violent protest, action, and prayer for the balm to cure all forms of racism starting today.

Please join me in asking Our Father for the balm of love, justice, peace, compassion and mercy to end racism and hatred now. Come, Holy Spirit, Come.

Heavenly Father, Soul Hope of Mankind, we turn to you in prayer this morning for the dearly departed from this world; especially those who suffered a cruel death. May Christ pardon all their sins, take them to Himself and present them to God the Most High. Give them rest for their souls O Lord and may Your light shine upon them forever.

We pray for families who are suffering the loss of loved ones that they may find the strength to call upon the Lord for help to bear the loss and find strength and peace and hope in His presence.

Ephesians 1:17-18 May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to his call.

Romans 5:2-5 We rejoice in Hope in the Glory of God. More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does disappoint; because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Lord help us all to foster peace in our hearts and remember that you suffered a cruel death at the hands of evil men. The knowledge that Jesus has been through trials and suffering before us reminds us of His love and gives us confidence that our hope in Him will not disappoint.

Lord as we stand together in solidarity before you, with families who suffer losses of loved ones, especially those who have suffered a cruel death at the hands of evil, let pray that by Your Grace and Mercy Justice and Peace will reign.

May we follow the guidance of Proverbs 3:5-6 Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. 6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

May the soul of George Floyd, those who suffered the death from COVID19 virus and the souls of all the faithful departed Rest In Peace.

In the Name of the Father and of The Son and of The Holy Spirit. Amen.

June is Family Health and Fitness Month

Make Fitness and Healthy Living a Daily Goal

SSS Community Involvement Committee
FAMILY HEALTH AND FITNESS DAY
JUNE - 2020

This year's theme is "Parks Build Healthy Communities."

SSS Share your Family Health & Fitness Day ideas.

Family Health & Fitness Day Fact Sheet

- NRPA's Family Health & Fitness Day — celebrated the second Saturday in June each year — promotes the importance of parks and recreation in keeping communities healthy. Agencies everywhere are encouraged to participate by sharing ways families can get active while practicing safe physical distancing on June 13 — whether through participating in virtual programs at home or in their local parks where state and local ordinances allow. Members of the healthcare community are encouraged to participate, as well, even as sponsors.
- Various research studies are confirming that community parks and recreation, green space and time outdoors is critical for creating healthy, active and sustainable communities. You can experience the benefits by connecting with your community parks and recreation any time of the year, and especially on Family Health & Fitness Day — just be sure to be mindful of physical distancing guidelines and guidance from your state and local government and public health officials.

- Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we realize many of your celebrations will be virtual or
- tailored to maintain physical distancing. Some creative program ideas for your celebration include:
  - Encouraging family bike rides/hikes on trails that are open
  - Host a sidewalk chalk art contest
  - Have "Bear hunts" – encourage people in your community place a stuffed animal in a easily-visible window of their home so that families can go for a walk and search for them and take photos of the things they find
  - Host a virtual race
  - Host a virtual morning yoga/meditation session
  - Stream a healthy cooking class or healthy cooking tips on your social media channels

- Take a Walk
- Cook a Healthy Meal
- Enroll in a Virtual Fitness Program
- Create Your Own Exercise Routine
- Play Outside

Prayer for the Beatification of Henriette Delille

The Sisters In the Spirit of Houston supports the sainthood of the Venerable Henriette Delille, who for the love of Jesus Christ made herself a humble devout servant of slaves. We confidently recite this prayer with unshakeable FAITH that she will be elevated to sainthood.

O good and gracious God, you called Henriette Delille to give herself in service and in love to the slaves and the sick, to the orphan and the aged, to the forgotten and the despised. Grant that inspired by her life, we might be renewed in heart and mind. If it is your will may she one day be raised to the honor of sainthood. By her prayers, may we live in harmony and peace, through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.
